

NOTES TO APPLICANTS

Please note that Moffat Scholarships are available to UK and EU students only.

Your application will need to include:

- references in support of your application.
- an up to date electronic copy of your CV which should include employment and academic history.

These can either be scanned in and e-mailed to Martha McCorkindale at development@gcal.ac.uk or sent by post to:

Glasgow Caledonian University, Moffat Scholarship Applicant, Development & Alumni Relations,
Cowcaddens Road, Glasgow, G4 0BA.

An acknowledgement will be sent when your application has been successfully received.

Applications should be completed with care and attention. Applications with spelling errors will not be considered. Applications that are handwritten will not be considered.

Scholarships will be awarded on an annual basis. Funding for continuing students will require re-application for each period of 12 months. Re-applications should be emailed to Martha McCorkindale at development@gcal.ac.uk.

We will advise you of the outcome of your application for Scholarship study within a week of the award panel meeting. If you have any further questions in respect of the application procedure, please contact Martha McCorkindale on 0141 331 8243.
